

STEWARDSHIP SUPPER

Families who look to St. John's as their Church will be invited to this Supper on Wednesday, March 24th at 7-30 p.m.

The Supper is an opportunity for the men of the parish to talk to the families about Christian Stewardship. Stewardship, that is, of all the gifts that God has so abundantly given to us, our time, our abilities and our money.

By generous giving in the past five years the Church in Ermine has completed an extensive programme of building and service at home, helped the work of the church overseas, and contributed to the needs of refugees and others in great need.

Our future programme is equally exciting. We ask you to come on March 24th and hear our plans. Make sure that your family is represented by sending your name along for an invitation. This year's chairman is Mr. Cecil Robinson, 1 Queen Elizabeth Road.

Father Robert Kem (Rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Des Moines, Iowa, U.S.A.)

Father Robert will become Vicar of St. John's for one year, beginning August 1st, 1965, when he and Father John exchange parishes.

Born in Davenport, Iowa, Father Robert graduated from St. Ambrose College there, and then served two years in the Federal Bureau of Investigation and as a naval officer in the Pacific Theatre during the latter part of World War II.

After training at the Episcopal Theological College at Cambridge, Mass., Fr. Robert went to Des Moines in 1949. Des Moines is in the heart of the corn-belt area of the Mid-West. It is primarily a trade centre, with agricultural machines, manufacturing and printing. There are many insurance companies home offices there. About 250,000 people live in the area. The Diocesan Office and Bishop's residence are there, although the Cath-dral is in Davenport, 180 miles east. The Diocese of Iowa, covers the state, an area of 56,000 miles.

St. Andrew's parish is on a residential growing-edge of the City. The present church site was a corn field in 1951, but housing now stretches far beyond the church. There are approximately 500 communicants at St. Andrew's, with many younger couples and young children.

There is hiking country an hour's drive north-west of Des Moines where the Diocesan Camp and Conference Centre is situated. Chicago is a day's drive away from Des Moines (300 miles).

Mrs. Roselyn K. m is a daughter of a professor of Wesley Theological College in Washington, D.C. Born in Massachusetts, Mrs. Kem graduated from Simmons College in Boston, with majors in psychology and social work.

The Kem's have three boys, Dan 14, Robert 11 and John 6.
