We Told You So, Brown Tells Mac

MR. George Brown, Deputy Leader of the Opposition, in a speech at Louth today said that despite some brave talk, the Brussels negotiations on the basis for British membership of the Common Market appeared to have collapsed in confusion and recrimination.

"It gives Labour no pleasure to remind the Prime Minister that this is just what we warned him of.

"And at this point let us all spare a thought for Mr. Heath and the other British negotiators. They were set an impossible task by the Prime Minister, and in addition were asked to negotiate 'against the clock' — for all the world as though Mr. Macmillan thought he were Bruce Forsyth on 'Sunday Night at the Palladium' — and yet by all accounts they did a pretty good job although unsuccessful.

"However, it's an ill-wind which blows nobody any good. This breakdown gives back to Britain the chance which the Prime Minister — with his attention as always more on electoral possibility than on the national interest — almost denied us. Britain can now take the steps which we in the Labour Party have urged in each of the Common Market debates."

Monty Going Home

After a 17-day rest in hospital, Field Marshal Lord Montgomery will be returning home tomorrow.

3 MEN HELD ON LINCOLN HARM CHARGE

TWO Ukrainians were found seriously injured in The Cornhill, Lincoln, last night. Both had wounds on the head and face—one was barely conscious and the other was badly dazed. Later three men were arrested, Lincoln city magistrates were told today.

Alfred James Campbell (24), unemployed, Michael Joseph Lynn (25), labourer, and Peter James Corrigan (21), labourer, all c/o 28 The Park, Lincoln, were accused of being jointly concerned in causing grievous bodily harm.

SUN-SEEKERS MAKE IT A SAFETY-FIRST HOLIDAY

Only One Death Is Reported

LUCKY Lincolnshire had managed to stay almost free of serious road accidents up to today. Even though Bank Holiday traffic has been quiet, this is a good record in view of the number of accidents nationally.

Today police and A.A. men were keeping their fingers crossed, hoping the trend would continue—especially tonight when a big build-up of home-coming cars was expected.

Killed in a collision with a van near the Aero Filling Station, Wainfleet-road, Fishtoft, yesterday, was 42-years-old George Arthur Creatorex, of no fixed address.

COOL

WEATHER forecast by the Meteorological Office at R.A.F. Manby for Lincoln and South Lincolnshire till noon tomorrow:

A period of rain this evening and tonight, becoming showery tomorrow. Winds south-easterly, moderate to fresh, becoming north-west to north later. Rather cool.

Outlook: Rather cool, showery, moderate to fresh northerly winds.

CAMPBELL WILL LOOK AT IRISH LAKES

Donald Campbell, leaving London Airport last night for Ireland where he was to open a pleasure craft mooring basin on the River Shannon, said there were several lakes in the vicinity of the Shannon which he hoped to have a look at, because he had been told they might prove suitable for a water speed record attempt.

A post mortem examination was being held on him today at Boston.

In the van were two Londoners, who spent the week-end camping on the Hobhole drainbank, near Boston.

At Bassingham there was a collision between a pedestrian and a motor cyclist. The pedestrian, Fred Waite, of Beck-lane, Bassingham, and the motor cyclist, George Lyon, of The Grange, Carlton-le-Moorland, were bruised, but neither was taken to hospital.

The A.A. at Nottingham reported 800 to 900 cars travelling along the Newark-Lincoln road towards the coast today. But on the Nottingham to Melton road only 12 cars passed a patrolman in one half-hour period this morning.

NO RUSH

They had received numerous inquiries about events taking place in the district.

A spokesman at Lincoln Central Station said that yesterday's excursions to Skegness, Mablethorpe and Cleethorpes were very well patronised, and 60 people went from Lincoln to Dudley Zoo on a St. Mark's Station excursion yesterday.

Today there was a rush of a rush by the public to leave Lincoln.

Firemen in the county were kept busy yesterday dealing with grass fires. Lincoln City Brigade dealt with four and a tree trunk fire, and the county had three grass fires and one tree trunk fire to tackle.

One of the fires, on Skellingthorpe Aerodrome, was caused by children, and about half an acre of grass was burned.

Skegness is not expecting to break Bank Holiday records. There has been no urgency about the rush to the coast and although the town is jam-packed with staying visitors, road traffic has been lighter than in the past and has presented no problems.

Summing up the situation, the foreshore director, Mr. W. G. Bosworth, said: "We are More pennies are placed end to end, in an effort to get a mile of pennies. It is in aid of St. John's, Ermine, new church, and is being organised by members of St. John's.

MARILYN'S WILL IS STILL MISSING Gives Her Plans For Burial

A BUSINESS associate said today that a will Marilyn Monroe was known to have made outlining plans for her own burial had not yet been found, and funeral arrangements would wait pending its discovery, expected later today.

News of Marilyn's sudden death shocked the world and dominated the front pages of today's newspapers on every continent.

Tass, the Soviet news agency, gave a 100-word report of the star's death, later broadcast by Moscow Radio, and Rome's Communist newspaper "L'Unita" splashed the news across four columns.

"STUNNED"

Reuters's correspondent sent these reports:

Hollywood: Producer Billy Wilder, who made two films with Marilyn, compared the "stunned reaction" to the news of her death with the "shock wave that hit the world when Rudolph Valentino died."

"Maybe she was tough to work with," he said. "Maybe she wasn't even an actress. But it was worth a week's torment to get those three luminous minutes on the screen."

"They've tried to manufacture other Marilyn Monroes, and they will undoubtedly keep trying, but it won't work. She was an original, and there'll never be another."

Doorstep Quiz In Hunt For Girl's Killer

DETECTIVES with questionnaires toured Wrexham, North Wales, today seeking the killer of 23-years-old red haired Miss June Roberts, whose battered body was found early on Saturday in a bakery yard.

TYPHOON "OPAL" KILLS 31

AT least 31 people were killed and more than 200 seriously injured and about 4,000 houses were destroyed

A police spokesman said that the house-to-house inquiries were part of an intensified hunt.

Supt. William Tennant, of Scotland Yard, is leading the inquiries.

The girl lived in Connor-crescent, Whitegate, Wrexham. Her father, Mr. Charles Roberts (47), a miner, has given details of a young man he saw "for a few seconds" on Friday night in his daughter's company. The man, a cigarette

U.N. PILE ON THE PRESSURE

THE United Nations has banned all flights, except those by its planes, to and from all U.N.-held airports in Katanga, including Elisabethville, a U.N. spokesman announced late last night in Elisabethville.

The United Nations said the step was taken after a request from the Central Government in Leopoldville. The main airports involved are Elisabethville and Kamina Base.

Informed sources said today this was clearly the first step to bring pressure on the Tshombe government to end Katanga's two-year-old secession, and was likely to be met with a hostile reaction from the Katangese.

The main service involved is that of the Belgian airline Sabena, who operated four flights weekly to and from Brussels and Elisabethville.

Russians Not Told Of New A-Test

THE Mayor of Hiroshima, the Japanese city devastated by the first atomic bomb exactly 17 years ago, today denounced the Soviet resumption of nuclear tests yesterday as "calious and cynical."

Services mourning the anniversary were held throughout the city today. All traffic stopped and silence reigned at 8.30 a.m., the exact moment when the bomb fell on August 6, 1945.

The eighth world congress against atomic and hydrogen bombs, now meeting in Tokio, was shocked by the news of yesterday's massive test in Northern Russia.

It was a 40-megaton device, equivalent to 40 million tons of T.N.T. and 2,000 times more powerful than the Hiroshima bomb.

The Russian people have not yet been told about the test, which Western observers in Moscow believe may be the first of a series designed to perfect anti-missile defence rockets.

LINCS "STOLE CHEQUES" CHARGE

ANTHONY JOHN DUDLEY DAVIES (21), unemployed, and at present of no fixed address, was remanded in custody for a week when he appeared before a special court at Sleaford today.

Davies is accused of stealing a cheque book containing 17 cheques worth 2s. 10d., the property of Osbornby Parochial Church Council.

Supt. John Cottingham told the magistrate, Mr. S. P. King, that Davies was arrested in Lincoln on Saturday, after a complaint from his grandmother, Mrs. Elwell, of Osbornby Vicarage, about the loss of a cheque book.

Det.-con. H. Wood said that when he arrested Davies, Davies said: "Yes, I took the book and cashed some cheques."

Applying for the remand, Supt. Cottingham said that because of the loss of the cheque book and the use of some of the cheques, further inquiries would have to be made.

BOY FELL FROM CAR IN LINCS

A TWO-YEARS-OLD boy received a suspected fractured skull when he fell from a moving car on the Skegness road at North Kyme, yesterday morning.

He is Christopher Howell, of Leicester.

One of two motor cyclists involved in a collision in Mareham-lane, Sleaford, on Saturday, is critically ill with a fractured spine in hospital at Sheffield.

He is Christopher Grundy (18), of Wigston Magna, Leicester.

The other motor cyclist, Brian Mumtas, of Oadby-road, Leicester, was discharged after hospital treatment.

Macmillan Sees Butler

MR. MACMILLAN was seeing Mr. Butler, the Deputy Prime Minister today to inform him of the latest position on the Common Market talks.

3 MEN HELD ON LINCOLN HARM CHARGE

TWO Ukrainians were found seriously injured in The Cornhill, Lincoln, last night. Both had wounds on the head and face—one was barely conscious and the other was badly dazed. Later three men were arrested, Lincoln city magistrates were told today.

Alfred James Campbell (24), unemployed, Michael Joseph Lynn (25), labourer, and Peter James Corrigan (21), labourer, all c/o 28 The Park, Lincoln, were accused of being jointly concerned in causing grievous bodily harm to George Romaniuk with intent to do him grievous bodily harm, and in assaulting Michael Poinkiw, thereby doing him actual bodily harm. All three men were remanded in custody until Tuesday next week.

P.C. N. J. Peatman said he went to The Cornhill at 10.5 p.m. yesterday, and outside an hotel saw Romaniuk and Poinkiw.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL
Both were seriously injured about the head and face. Romaniuk was barely conscious, and Poinkiw was badly dazed.

Both were immediately taken to Lincoln County Hospital in a police patrol car.

P.C. Peatman said that half an hour later he went to Carr-street, where he saw the three accused men standing by a van. He told them they answered the descriptions of three men who drove away from The Cornhill in a van after injuring two Ukrainians.

He examined their clothing. Corrigan was wearing only one shoe. It matched one found in The Cornhill, said the constable.

"NOT GUILTY"

Campbell was alleged to have said: "I haven't been anywhere near The Cornhill with my van." Lynn said: "I was there, but didn't hit anybody." Corrigan said: "My shoe came off when I ran to the van."

P.C. Peatman said that when he charged them with the offences all three replied: "Not guilty."

Chief-insp. J. H. Preston said the police were not in a position to proceed with the case, as further inquiries had to be made. Also, the two victims of the alleged assault were "in no state" to give evidence yet.

Opposing bail he said he did so on the grounds of the seriousness of the charges. Also because the three accused had only been in Lincoln a few weeks and were living in lodgings.

They were told by the Clerk to the magistrates that they could apply to a High Court Judge for bail if they wished.

Lincolnshire till now tomorrow:

A period of rain this evening and tonight, becoming showery tomorrow. Winds south-easterly, moderate to fresh, becoming north-west to north later. Rather cool.

Outlook: Rather cool, showery, moderate to fresh northerly winds.

U.S NAZI "IS IN BRITAIN"

HOME Office has every reason to believe that George Lincoln Rockwell, leader of the American Nazi Party, is in Britain, said a spokesman today, after reports that he had addressed a rally of the National Socialist Movement in Gloucestershire yesterday.

"He would seem to have entered the country via Shannon," added the spokesman. "The Home Secretary is now considering reports to see whether any official action is necessary."

The Home Secretary, Mr. Henry Brooke, has already said that Rockwell would not be allowed into Britain.

Good Start To Non-Stop Lincs Show

SLEAFORD'S big day, 10 hours of non-stop entertainment at the Annual August Monday Show, got off to a good start.

Organised by the Sleaford and District Garden Holders Association the programme featured main ring events of horse jumping, cycling and athletic sports.

There are numerous side shows including a horticultural section where this year there are wine making classes for the first time. There are big entries in the canine section and for the rabbit show.

Set in the delightful Westholme grounds today's show was expected to break all records.

A notable absentee was Mr. Joseph Godber, the local M.P. who is representing Great Britain at the Geneva disarmament talks.

and a motor cyclist. The pedestrian, Fred Waite, of Beck-lane, Bassingham, and the motor cyclist, George Lyon, of The Grange, Carlton-Moorland, were bruised, but neither was taken to hospital.

The A.A. at Nottingham reported 800 to 900 cars travelling along the Newark-Lincoln road towards the coast today. But on the Nottingham to Melton road only 12 cars passed a patrolman in one half-hour period this morning.

Summing up the situation, the foreshore director, Mr. W. G. Bosworth, said: "We are certainly busy and there are crowds of people here, but I have known busier bank holidays."

SLEEPING OUT

Saturday and early Sunday saw late arrivals searching for accommodation and many of them searched in vain.

Policemen dealing with inquiries until the early hours of Sunday morning had to tell late arrivals: "We are sorry, we know of no vacant rooms." Even so the usual trek from boarding house to boarding house in search of accommodation did not reach the same proportions as in some previous years, and fewer people slept out in their cars.

AUGUST BLANK HOLIDAY

"DAMP, dismal and depressing." This was how the R.A.C. described "August Blank Holiday" in South-East England today.

Bedraggled motorists breakfasted in the rain in many places, according to the A.A. and one of their patrolmen reported the A.23 London to Brighton road looking like a "bare, windswept runway," with his Land-Rover the only vehicle in sight.

Back To Normal

NORMAL production was resumed today at the Coventry factory of Jaguar Cars Limited, where 800 men were laid off on Friday as a result of last Tuesday's one-day unofficial strike by 50 internal transport drivers.

But there was no production at the Coventry factory of the Rootes Group, where 8,000 production men are having an unexpected day's holiday because Pressed Steel at Oxford are unable to meet the demand for car bodies.

36 WORDS

"Pravda," the Soviet Communist Party newspaper, reported Marilyn Monroe's death in 36 words on page three of a four-page paper today.

It described her as "a well-known American film actress." (See also "Now Sex Symbol Is Just Case No. 81128", on page 5).

Squad Men On Theft Charges

TWO Flying Squad detectives and three British Transport Commission policemen were remanded until August 22, at Thames Court today on theft charges.

Bail was renewed in their own recognisances of £200 each.

They are charged with stealing 16 coats and five dozen pairs of knickers, the property of the British Transport Commission, at James Bryan House, Bethnal Green, on April 6.

Jiggins and Shearon are jointly charged with stealing 16 watches, the property of Dennis Delmont, at the same address, and further charged with stealing £80, also the property of Dennis Delmont, at James Bryan House on April 6.

AT least 31 people were killed and more than 200 seriously injured and about 4,000 houses were destroyed when typhoon "Opal" battered the northern part of Formosa for four hours today, preliminary reports reaching Taipei said.

Winds reached 175 miles an hour.

Keelung, Formosa's northern port, was hit by 115 m.p.h. winds and a 4,000-ton Korean ship broke loose in the harbour.

Shampoo On The Shore

BEAUTY and the beach are being sponsored jointly by Jacques Dessange, at St. Tropez, South France, at what is claimed to be the world's first open air hairdressing salon on the beach.

Until the end of August, women at the popular Cote d'Azur resort of St. Tropez are able to have their hair shampooed, set and dried on the beach itself, at the new outdoor salon, writes Peggy Massin, Reuter's correspondent, St. Tropez.

Bikini-clad clients continue to tan their bodies while getting their "woman's crowning glory" into presentable shape.

"Tahiti Plage," about two and a half miles from St. Tropez, is the setting for this open air salon.

SUNBATHING

In Polynesian inspired surroundings, complete with swaying palm trees, women recline on comfortable deck chairs with their heads tucked inside drying machines.

Individual adjustable parasols matching the colourful striped mattresses offer shade if desired.

This open air salon can accommodate up to 60 clients a day. Shampooing and setting is done in an adjacent Cabana, a canvas tent which gives protection against a sudden summer shower.

Another enclosure offers a sheltered solarium, where fanatic sun worshippers can indulge in nude sunbathing, or receive beauty treatments and massage.

Jacques Dessange, who, at 36 years of age, is the youngest of leading French hairdressers, opened his beach salon last summer.

The idea proved an instant success and the premises this season are larger.

Sun and salt water work havoc with hair styles, but most women dislike leaving the beach to spend a long hot afternoon in a conventional hairdressing salon. Hence the appeal of this unusual undertaking.

The idea for the beach salon came originally from the clients themselves.

Women having their hair "done" at Dessange's town salon asked to have the hair-dryers moved out on to the pavement (sidewalk) in front of the establishment.

WELL-KNOWN

For life at St. Tropez revolves round pavement cafes and strolling along the winding streets in the picturesque "ponche" quarter, and clients felt that not only would the air outside be cooler, but they could also watch the pedestrian parade and greet their friends.

SHOWING THE WORLD THEY'RE NOT SECOND-CLASS CITIZENS

Now Jamaica Is Independent

AS six o'clock struck this morning, 2,000 Jamaicans who have been celebrating all night at The Lyceum, Strand, London, reached fever pitch of excitement. Jamaica had become independent.

The time corresponded to midnight in Jamaica, the hour for independence.

The Jamaican flag, a gold St. Andrew's cross on a green and black background, was draped over a centre balcony, in the Lyceum.

Hundreds of smaller flags were waved by the crowds on the main floor, on the balcony and in the boxes, to the great burst of cheering and clapping.

A huge net full of balloons was released on to the party.

IMAGE

In his address to mark the moment of independence, Mr. I. Desouza, acting as head of the mission for Jamaica in London, said that Jamaicans were no longer private citizens in Britain. They had now to project the image of an independent Jamaica.

Many of them had lived and worked here for a long time and as such had represented Jamaica. They were now faced with an even greater task.

"We have to show the world, and to show particularly in this country, that we are not second class citizens. We must show them that we are ready to walk and live with them with dignity.

"We must show that, although we have taken 300 years to get independence, we are more than ready for it. We have moved forward to independence by peaceful means.

"By our long association with this country we have learned about the rule of law and of according justice between man and man.

"I hope that the people of Britain will continue to show even greater goodwill than they have in the past toward the newest member of the Commonwealth.

"Long live Jamaica." Mr. Dick Pixley, who is preparing a programme for the B.B.C. on Jamaican independence, said that people in Jamaica lived in "unique racial harmony."

"There is no law against intermarriage, no laws against men living in any part of the country."

BOOS TOO

When Mr. Pixley referred to Sir Alexander Bustamante, Prime Minister of Jamaica, there was a mixed outburst of cheers, boos and catcalls.

A long, general cheer greeted his mention of Mr. Norman Manley, the former Prime Minister of Jamaica.

The proceedings ended with the playing of the Jamaican national anthem and "God Save the Queen."

Dancing had gone on all through the night except for a break for a cabaret show.

All night the Jamaicans had sung and "twisted" with just a few hours to go before the new Jamaican flag was hoisted over the independent island.

THE hot summer season in Japan is also the goldfish season. Japanese feel refreshed if they can watch goldfish swimming among water plants in ponds or glass bowls while they perspire in the heat.

Goldfish peddlers in navy blue happicoats (short jackets), pushing their carts packed with goldfish, bowls, goldfish food and plants through the bustling traffic, are a familiar sight in summer.

Japan has bred goldfish for more than 400 years, and during a season, about 60,000,000 are put on the market.

Now The Symbol Is Just Case No 81128

THE body of Marilyn Monroe, who was the film world's top sex symbol for over a decade, lay in a Los Angeles mortuary today—Case No. 81128 in the county coroner's files.

A psychiatrist and psychologist appointed by the coroner, today began delving into her life and personality in an effort to find out whether the 36-year-old blonde star's death was suicide or an accident.

Doctors who broke into the locked bedroom of her bungalow yesterday found Marilyn naked in bed, with the sheets pulled up round her neck and a telephone receiver gripped in a lifeless hand.

BROADWAY OFFER

On a bedside table lay an empty bottle which had contained sleeping pills, a large number of other medicine bottles — and near them an open telegram offering her a star part in a Broadway musical.

Miss Monroe's housekeeper, Mrs. Eunice Murray, said Marilyn's last words were a cheerful "Goodnight, Honey" as she entered her bedroom.

Shortly before retiring on Saturday at 8 p.m. (local time) she telephoned her psychiatrist, Dr. Ralph Greenson, complaining she could not sleep. He advised her to go for a drive by the sea. She never did.

Mrs. Murray called Dr. Greenson after she saw a light under Marilyn's door at 3 a.m. She got no answer when she knocked. Dr. Greenson called another doctor, broke in with him through a window, and pronounced the star dead at 3.40 a.m.

Police estimated that Marilyn died shortly after she retired at eight. A policeman said no notes were found.

Dr. Theodore K. Curphey, Los Angeles county coroner, ordered an autopsy, begun last night by Dr. Tsunetomi Nohuchi, a pathologist. He expected to know tomorrow the exact cause of death.

NO HAPPINESS

The investigating team consists of Dr. Robert Littman, psychiatrist, and Dr. Norman Farberow, psychologist. Dr. Curphey said he expected them to take a week to complete their investigation.

Marilyn, world-famous for "the wiggle" of her hips and her wide-eyed look, hit the multi-million-dollar income bracket, but rarely achieved personal happiness.

Her three marriages to Los Angeles policeman James Dougherty, baseball star Joe Di Maggio, and playwright Arthur Miller all ended in divorce.

Friends often attributed her complex "mixed-up" personality to her drab, loveless childhood.

Marilyn was born Norma Jean Mortenson (or Baker) on June 1, 1926, in Los Angeles.

"RED HAIR"

Her mother, who is now in a California mental institute, has been variously identified as Gladys (Monroe) Morten-son and Gladys Pearl Baker. After 12 sets of foster parents and at least one stay in a Los Angeles orphanage, Marilyn knew her mother only as "the woman with the red hair" who sometimes visited her.

Jayne Mansfield summed up the reaction of a shocked film world with the comment: "The whole world will mourn the loss of this great star. There will never be another Marilyn Monroe."

Tourists Leave New York

Another enclosure offers a sheltered solarium, where fanatic sun worshippers can indulge in nude sunbathing, or receive beauty treatments and massage.

Jacques Dessange, who, at 36 years of age, is the youngest of leading French hairdressers, opened his beach salon last summer.

The idea proved an instant success and the premises this season are larger.

Sun and salt water work havoc with hair styles, but most women dislike leaving the beach to spend a long hot afternoon in a conventional hairdressing salon. Hence the appeal of this unusual undertaking.

The idea for the beach salon came originally from the clients themselves.

Women having their hair "done" at Dessange's town salon asked to have the hair-driers moved out on to the pavement (sidewalk) in front of the establishment.

These girls have no complexes about being seen sitting under a hair dryer, and Monsieur Dessange has thoughtfully substituted becoming pink plastic bonnets, complete with bows and ruffles, for the heavy hairnet usually used to keep rollers in place.

The sight is far from catastrophic, even if a girl's favourite boy friend happens to pass by.

Brigitte Bardot, who owns the luxury "Villa Maitrague" at St. Tropez, is a frequent client.

Miss Bardot, who often changes the colour of her hair by bleaching or dyeing, also owns ten different wigs which Jacques Dessange has made for her.

"She changes her wigs as easily as a dress, and has ordered them in every style and colour," says M. Dessange.

MONKEY CHASE

"The styles include everything from a choir boy cut to a sophisticated chignon, in shades ranging from platinum blonde to black."

Anna Marie Peysson, the French television star, is another regular client.

The story is legendary there now of how, last summer, Miss Peysson arrived for an appointment accompanied by her pet monkey.

The monkey escaped from its leash, and was chased frantically all over the beach by the contingent of young assistant hairdressers.

The monkey took refuge in the tallest palm tree on the front from which he was eventually lured by the offer of a banana.

PARADE

In Jamaica itself, the hub of the celebrations was the new National Stadium, built for the ninth Central American and Caribbean Games starting on Saturday, and opened on Saturday by Princess Margaret as the Queen's representative.

There, the Princess, her husband, Princess Alice, Chancellor of the University of the West Indies, representatives of Commonwealth and foreign countries and other distinguished guests witnessed a big parade after the flag ceremony.

Prominent in the parade was the newly-formed Jamaica Defence Force, taking over responsibility for the island's security from the British Forces.

With them were other military units, visiting naval and air force representatives, police, firemen, Red Cross, Boy Scouts, Girl Guides and other organisations.

Vandals Hit Rail Car: 100 Saved

NEARLY 100 passengers travelling at over 50 m.p.h. in a two coach diesel train between Warrington and Liverpool last night were saved by the presence of mind of the driver after vandals had diverted it on to a loop line.

As the train hit the points at speed driver Fred Slater (31), of Blomfield-road, Allerton, Liverpool, applied the emergency brakes, and brought it to a standstill before the loop curved back on to the main line.

Driver Slater, of the Speke, Liverpool, Junction Depot, said later, "I felt sure it was going to turn over. I just cannot tell how it remained upright."

Where Buyers Do Their Shopping In Rubber Boots

THE hot summer season in Japan is also the goldfish season. Japanese feel refreshed if they can watch goldfish swimming among water plants in ponds or glass bowls while they perspire in the heat.

Goldfish peddlers in navy blue happicoats (short jackets), pushing their carts packed with goldfish, goldfish food and plants through the bustling traffic, are a familiar sight in summer.

Japan has bred goldfish for more than 400 years, and during a season, about 60,000,000 are put on the market.

Many fish are bred at Edogawa-Ku, on the eastern outskirts of Tokio, where a cooperative has 30 breeding ponds covering 60 acres.

AUCTION

Every Thursday, from March until November, the goldfish cooperative there holds an auction among producers and wholesalers.

For selling, the goldfish are classified by size and type. They are packed in sieve-bottomed wooden cases, each containing 500 to 1,000. More than 200 of these cases are placed in the pond and breeders and buyers, wearing rubber boots, wade through the pond and conduct the auction.

Wholesalers check the colour, kind and size before bidding. In half a day, £1,500 is spent for 200 cases of goldfish.

The most popular varieties handled in the market are common goldfish, 60 per cent.; Lochoo goldfish (fantail goldfish), 20 per cent., and demekin (literally translated as "projecting eyes"), 20 per cent.

Prices generally range from two pence to two shillings a piece. But some exotic varieties like the maruko (round goldfish), or the lionhead, cost several pounds each.

HIS AIM

As yet exports are on a small scale—about 700,000 goldfish were exported last year, mainly to the United States and Australia.

One official of the cooperative said that he expects domestic demand to increase, and his aim is to sell one fish to every Japanese.

Recently, deterioration in the quality of the water supply has become a source of trouble to goldfish breeders. Agricultural chemicals and contaminated water from nearby rice fields and factories, together with chlorine, are said to be the causes.

Because of it, the water supplied to the ponds is mainly rain water, and dry weather then proves fatal to the goldfish.

DANGERS

Mr. Kogoro Akiyama, whose grandfather bred goldfish said: "I have to walk more than 10 miles a day, constantly checking the changing quality of the water. I once had thousands of goldfish die in a few minutes because of contaminated water."

There are other dangers to goldfish. In a strong wind, thousands can be smothered to death if driven into a corner of a pond.

One eel wriggling its way into the ponds can eat hundreds of goldfish, while seagulls always look upon them as a delicacy.

SAVED—AFTER 20 HOURS ON RAFT

AN Orkney lifeboat landed at Wick early today the crew of 10 of the Peterhead (Aberdeenshire) fishing boat, Daisy, who had been clinging to an open raft in a storm-lashed sea for 20 hours.

The rescued men, "all safe and well," were spotted yesterday by the flight-sergeant of an R.A.F. Shackleton, picked up later by the Danish cargo-boat Nella Dan and transferred to the Longhope lifeboat which brought them into Wick this morning after a 100-mile battle with the westerly gale.

The news of the dramatic rescue reached Peterhead in a radio message direct from the Danish ship as relatives and friends were offering prayers for the men's safety in local churches.

The quays were crowded early today with people who had been waiting an hour for the lifeboat to arrive.

PRAYERS

Four cars sent from Peterhead took the Daisy's crew back to their homes. One or two relatives of the men had come north in the cars.

When the lifeboat berthed at the jetty, Captain C. Halstead, commander of the Wick Corps of the Salvation Army, gave a prayer of thanks for the safe delivery of the crew and for the lifeboat men who had brought them back.

The 10 men went to a hotel for a hot meal, and intended to set off for Peterhead about 200 miles away as soon as possible.

The coxswain of the lifeboat, 52-years-old Dan Kirkpatrick, said that they took off the 10 men from the Nella Dan shortly before noon on Sunday. It took from half-an-hour to three-quarters to get them transferred.

Body—But Not Human

FOR about two hours on Saturday, police kept watch on an object in the sea near Chapel St. Leonards. A holidaymaker had reported that the object appeared to be a body.

Police examined it through binoculars and when the object drifted inshore, they found it was a body—the body of a seal.

1,000 CATTLE ARE OUTCASTS

For five years a herd of 1,000 cattle has been isolated in British Columbia's Cariboo Range area for a test in warble control. The cattle were grazed at least five miles from any other herd.

son called another doctor, broke in with him through a window, and pronounced the star dead at 3.40 a.m.

Police estimated that Marilyn died shortly after she retired at eight. A policeman said no notes were found.

Dr. Theodore K. Curphey, Los Angeles county coroner, ordered an autopsy, begun last night by Dr. Tsunetomi Nohuchi, a pathologist. He expected to know tomorrow the exact cause of death.

NO HAPPINESS

The investigating team consists of Dr. Robert Littman, psychiatrist, and Dr. Norman Farberow, psychologist. Dr. Curphey said he expected them to take a week to complete their investigation.

Marilyn, world-famous for "the wiggle" of her hips and her wide-eyed look, hit the multi-million-dollar income bracket, but rarely achieved personal happiness.

Her three marriages to Los Angeles policeman James Dougherty, baseball star Joe Di Maggio, and playwright Arthur Miller all ended in divorce.

"RED HAIR"

Her mother, who is now in a California mental institute, has been variously identified as Gladys (Monroe) Mortenson.

Tourists Leave New York

ABOUT 1,600 British tourists were on their way home today in the liner Canberra after the first four-day British tourist cruise to New York.

After a day's stay in Southampton, the Canberra will return to New York with another 1,800 tourists for a four-day stay, the P. and O.—Orient line has announced.

Most of the tourists appeared to have enjoyed their brief visit.

HIGH PRICES

London cabbie Mr. Ted Clark, of Battersea, said he had a "wonderful time," but complained that bar prices in New York were too high.

Mrs. Joan Dennis, of Well-way, Epsom, Surrey, said she was unimpressed with New York department stores and the streets outside them.

"Our West End shops are nicer, and New York streets are not as clean as ours," she added.

Mr. R. G. Johnson and his wife, Shirley, of Whetstone, North London, said they were impressed by the beauty of the American countryside.

RUBBISH FIRE

Mrs. Taylor, of 114 Brant-road, Lincoln, asks us to make clear that a rubbish fire to which the brigade were called on Thursday night was not on her property, but nearby. On spotting the outbreak she phoned the police.

BROTHER AND SISTER IN FINALS

Lincs Tennis Champion Is Beaten

IN an exciting, close fought match, Bill Andrew, of Spalding, the men's singles champion in 1959 and 1960, beat Bernard Finneran, the holder, to reach the finals at Lincolnshire Closed Tennis Championships at Grimsby yesterday.

Meanwhile, on another court his sister, Miss Pat Andrew, was scoring a well deserved, calm victory over Miss Sally West, of Holbeach St. Mark's, in the women's singles semi-finals.

Bill Andrew's opponent will be another county player, M. L. Waters, of Wroot, who beat L. R. Rumph, of Lincoln, 6-4, 6-2, an echo of earlier this season when he took the county hard court championship from Rumph, the holder for three years.

Miss Andrew will play Miss Susan Revill, of Blyton, for the women's title. Miss Revill, 19-years-old member of the first couple of the Oxford University Women's First Team, fought courageously in her semi-final round to beat Miss Mary Gill, of Lincoln, last year's semi-finalist.

Miss Gill reached set point in the first set only for Miss Revill to finally beat her 9-7. In the second set Miss Gill collapsed under the power of Miss Revill's sure service and long reach.

DETERMINED

Only determination put Finneran in the semi-final. The burly Grimsby policeman lost the first set 1-6 to D. Kirk, of Lincoln, and Kirk gained three match points in the second set before Finneran settled down to win it 10-8 and the final set 6-1.

Miss Andrew too was down 1-3 in the first set, before she got the measure of Miss West's play. Sally, a county player at 17, appeared shaken, and made errors against the unflappable Miss Andrew.

In the men's doubles, the biggest shock came in the quarter-finals when M. L. Water, of Wroot, and his partner B. Edlington, of Beckingham, near Doncaster, went down to D. Winne and P. D. MacCrimmon, of Scunthorpe. The younger pair gained a 6-3 victory in the first set, lost the second 5-7, and won the third 6-2.

Their semi-finals match will be against experienced county players, E. Mason, of Lincoln, and G. A. Bell, of Boston.

The other semi-final will be between Andrew and D. Kirk, and Finneran and Rumph.

Miss Revill, partnered by Miss Gill, will also meet Miss Andrew, and her fellow county player, Mrs. E. A. Whitely, of Spalding, in the women's doubles final.

City Sign Amateurs After Trial

LINCOLN City Football Club held a "satisfactory" amateur trial at Sincil Bank on Saturday when 40 boys from the county went through their paces in an effort to sign for the Imps.

At the end of the trial Mr. W. Anderson, the manager, announced that three teenagers had signed forms for the club.

The lucky ones are: James William Fenwick (19), a 5ft. 11in. inside forward from Scunthorpe; John Leggett (17), a wing half, who stands 6ft. and who lives at Tattershall Thorpe; and outside right David Kinninmonth (19), 5ft. 10in. from Digby.

CONTRASTS

The trial game was one of contrasts. Promising mid-field moves were often spoiled by bad finishing and although five goals were scored — four by the whites and one by the stripes — the forwards were generally ineffective.

The one exception was Chris Gedney, a teenager from the Boston area, who although slightly built, showed great tenacity.

Gedney, who played for Lincoln City A team in the Lincolnshire League last season, could shoot with both feet and proved to have a good footballing brain.

Had the young players settled down to playing a steady, resolute game instead of trying hard to prove they were the outstanding individuals on the field, a better standard of football would have resulted.

However, club officials were quite satisfied with the performances of several

Pictured here is the British team to play the United States in the Curtis Cup match at Broadmore, Colorado, on August 17 and 18.

The side has two major distinctions. It is wholly English in make-up, and the average age is just over 22. This is considerably less than any other team chosen to represent Britain.

BANK HOLIDAY CRICKET

WORCESTERSHIRE had their championship aspirations well and truly dented by the Essex captain, 38-years-old Trevor Bailey. Before rain stopped play, Worcestershire had slumped to 119 for eight. Bailey had claimed five of them, four of them today.

Over 20,000 watched play at Old Trafford, where Lancashire reached 111 for three in reply to Yorkshire's first innings total of 235 all out.

Warwickshire, the championship leaders, claimed two Northamptonshire wickets, and lunch was taken at 187 for two.

Leicestershire added 123 in two hours against Derbyshire, and Maurice Hallam, whose benefit it is, hit five fives in his 50.

Rain halted play at the Oval, where Nottinghamshire reached 86 for one against Surrey; and at Swansea, with Pakistan 51 for one against Glamorgan.

No play at all was possible in three games. They were Gloucestershire v. Somerset at Bristol, Sussex v. Middlesex at Hove, and Kent v. Hampshire at Canterbury.
